What bible verse says only god can judge me

1 If I speak in the tongues of men or of angels, but do not have love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. 2 If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but do not have love, I am nothing. 3 If I give all I possess to the poor and give over my body to hardship that I may boast, but do not have love, I gain nothing. 4 Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. 5 It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. 6 Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. 7 It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. 8 Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. 9 For we know in part and we prophesy in part, 10 but when completeness comes, what is in part disappears. 11 When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put the ways of childhood behind me. 12 For now we see only a reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. 13 And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love. What does only God can judge me mean? We all have heard this statement at some point in our lives, but is this statement biblical? The plain answer is no. This is actually a Tupac Shakur song. When people say this, they are saying you are a human and you have no right to judge me. Many people who don't want to be held accountable for their deliberate sins use this excuse. Yes it is true the Lord will judge you, but God's people will judge you as well. I will admit there are indeed Christians who have critical hearts and literally search for something wrong with you so they can judge and no believer should act like this. But the truth is the Bible says not to judge hypocritically and off of appearance. Throughout our lives we are judged. For example, we are judged at school, when getting a drivers license, and at work, but it's never a problem. It's only a problem when it has to do with Christianity. How are we to stay away from bad friends if we can't judge? How are we to save others from their sins? When Christians try to correct rebellious people we do so out of love and we do it humbly, gently, and kindly not trying to act like we are better than the person, but sincerely trying to help. You don't know what you're saying. The truth is you wouldn't want God to judge you. God is a consuming fire. When He judges the wicked, He throws them in Hell for eternity. There will be no escaping the torment. Jesus didn't die so you can spit on His grace and mock Him by your actions. Do you not care about the great price that Jesus paid for you soul. Repent of your sins. Put your trust in Christ alone for salvation. These Scriptures that many people take out of context are talking about hypocritical judging. How can you judge someone when you're sinning just as much or even worse than they are? Take the log out of your eye before you try to correct others. Matthew 7:1 "Do not judge, or you too will be judged." Matthew 7:3-5 "And why worry about a speck in your friend's eye when you have a log in your own? How can you think of saying to your friend, 'Let me help you get rid of that speck in your eye,' when you can't see past the log in your own eye? Hypocrite! First get rid of the log in your own eye; then you will see well enough to deal with the speck in your friend's eye." The Bible teaches us to judge correctly and not off of appearance. John 7:24 "Do not judge according to appearance, but judge with righteous judgment." Leviticus 19:15 "Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favoritism to the great, but judge your neighbor fairly." Scripture teaches us to bring people who are living in rebellion back on the right path. James 5:20 "Realize that whoever brings a sinner back from the error of his ways will save him from death, and many sins will be forgiven." 1 Corinthians 6:2-3 "Or do you not know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is to be judged by you, are you not competent to settle trivial suits? Do you not know that we will judge angels? Why not ordinary matters?" Galatians 6:1 "Brothers and sisters, if a person gets trapped by wrongdoing, those of you who are spiritual should help that person turn away from doing wrong. Do it in a gentle way. At the same time watch yourself so that you also are not tempted." Matthew 18:15-17 "If your brother sins against you, go and rebuke him in private. If he listens to you, you have won your brother. But if he won't listen, take one or two more with you, so that by the testimony of two or three witnesses every fact may be established. If he pays no attention to them, tell the church. But if he doesn't pay attention even to the church, let him be like an unbeliever and a tax collector to you." How are we to watch out for false teachers if we can't judge? Romans 16:17-18 "Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple." Matthew 7:15-16 "Beware of false prophets who come to you in sheep's clothing but inwardly are savage wolves. You will know them by their fruit. Grapes aren't gathered from thorns, or figs from thistles, are they?" The sin of being silent. Ezekiel 3:18-19 "So when I say to a wicked person, 'You're about to die,' if you don't warn or instruct that wicked person that his behavior is wicked so he can live, that wicked person will die in his sin, but I'll hold you responsible for his death. If you warn the wicked person, and he doesn't repent of his wickedness or of his wicked behavior, he'll die in his sin, but you will have saved your own life." If you remain rebellious towards His Word you wouldn't want God to judge you. 2 Thessalonians 1:8 "taking vengeance with flaming fire on those who don't know God and on those who don't obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus." Psalm 7:11 "God is an honest judge. He is angry with the wicked every day." Hebrews 10:31 "It is a dreadful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." When using this excuse to justify willful sin goes wrong. Matthew 7:21-23 "Not everyone who says to Me, 'Lord, Lord!' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of My Father in heaven. On that day many will say to Me, 'Lord, Lord, didn't we prophesy in Your name, drive out demons in Your name, and do many miracles in Your name?' Then I will announce to them, 'I never knew you! Depart from Me, you lawbreakers!'" 1 John 3:8-10 "The one who practices sin is of the devil, because the devil has been sinning from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was revealed: to destroy the works of the devil. Everyone who has been fathered by God does not practice sin, because God's seed resides in him, and thus he is not able to sin, because he has been fathered by God. By this the children of God and the children of the devil are revealed: Everyone who does not practice righteousness—the one who does not love his fellow Christian—is not of God." At the end of the day the Lord will judge. John 12:48 "The one who rejects me and does not accept my words has a judge; the word I have spoken will judge him at the last day." 2 Corinthians 5:10 "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, so that each one may be paid back according to what he has done while in the body, whether good or evil." In Jewish culture, names are important because the meaning of a person's name reflects his or her character. The same holds true for the view of God in Judaism. Here are some of the Hebrew names for God and what they say about how Jews view Him.YHWH, or YahwehThe most common Hebrew name for God is YHWH, or Yahweh. This name stems from His declaration to Moses that He calls Himself, "I Am." The Hebrew letters for the verb "to be" form the letters YHWH, which is where we get the name Yahweh from. The name Jehovah also stems from these Hebrew letters. You'll also sometimes hear the letters YHWH referred to as the tetragrammaton, from the Greek word for "four letters."Elohim, or ElThe Jewish people often used the Hebrew word Elohim as a name for God. It's a plural word, but Hebrew speakers used it as a singular name to apply to God. They also used the singular word El with a descriptive word or phrase to describe God's characteristics. Some examples of this usage are "El Shaddai (God Almighty)" and "El Elyon" (God Most High).AdonaiThe name Adonai means "my Lord" in Hebrew, and, like Elohim, it's a plural word, although Hebrew treats it singular when those who use it refer to God. The singular form of Adonai is Adonai, and Hebrew speakers used it to address a person of importance. Basically you can use Adonai to mean "the Lord" as well.HashemSome people in Jewish circles believe that God's followers should only use the proper Hebrew names of Adonai and YHWH in the context of prayer. These Jewish believers use the name Hashem, which means "the Name," in place of proper names to speak of God outside of worship services.Ehyeh-Asher-EhyehAnother name for God that you can find in Hebrew is Ehyeh-Asher-Ehyeh. When you literally translate that name from Hebrew, it means, "I am that I am." The idea behind the name is an expansion of God's reference to Himself as "I Am." The expansion of the "I Am" statement represents God's everlasting existence. MORE FROM QUESTIONSANSWERED.NET
