Chuck e cheese donation request

DALLAS, October 29, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Throughout November, Chuck E. Cheese's commits guests and employees to raising much-needed money and awareness for Big Brothers Big Sisters of America, which helps respond to 30,000 Littles still waiting for a supportive adult mentor. Through Chuck E. Cheese's Roundup campaign, customers can round off their purchases to the nearest dollar and donate the difference to the Big Brothers Big Sisters or make a larger donation in the amount of their choice. Chuck E. Cheese's is proud to partner with Big Brothers Big Sisters, a trusted organization that benefits our communities and introduces positive mentors to thousands of children facing adversity, said Tom Leverton, ceo of CEC Entertainment, Inc. Chuck E. Cheese's is a national charity partner and Big Brothers Big Sisters of America destination, offering discounts on more than 170,000 mentoring matches across the United States and Canada. This special value offering for bigs, Littles and Big Brothers Big Sisters staff includes 25 tokens, one mid-range single-topping pizza and two drinks for just $17.99. Chuck E. Cheese's also encourages employees to participate or become active Big Brothers through the Big Sisters Big Sisters. In addition to the need for volunteers, funds are needed to facilitate new matches and support subsidiaries across the country, said Pam Iorio, ceo of Big Brothers Big Sisters of America. This partnership allows more people to learn about older brothers from older sisters and participate in a simple but very effective way. You'll find the nearest Chuck E. Cheese's About Big Brothers Big Sisters of America Big Brothers Big Sisters, the nation's largest mentoring network supported by donors and volunteers, holds itself accountable to children in its program to achieve measurable results such as educational success, avoidance of risky behavior, higher aspirations, greater trust, and better relationships. Big Brothers Big Sisters collaborates with parents/guardians, schools, businesses and other community companies to connect children (Littles) with carefully screened volunteer mentors (Bigs) and oversees and supports these one-on-one mentoring matches throughout their course. The Big Brothers Big Sisters Youth Outcomes Survey shows that its mentoring programs have proven to be positive academic, socio-emotional and behavioral outcomes for young people, areas related to high school graduation, avoiding juvenile delinquents, and college or work readiness. Big Brothers Big Sisters offers children living in the face of adversity strong and lasting, professionally supported two-yellow mentoring relationships that will change their lives for the better, forever. This mission has been the cornerstone of the organization's 110-year-old history. Big Brothers Big Sisters has more than 300 offices across the country and serves nearly 170,000 children, their families and 170,000 volunteer mentors. Read more www.BigBrothersBigSisters.org. Cheese's 15, 2013 10:14 AM Eastern Daylight Time DALLAS---(BUSINESS WIRE)-Chuck E. Cheese's is the perfect venue to host your next fundraiser. Over $10 million. Dollar. Back to schools and nonprofit children's organizations through Chuck E. Cheese fundraising events, the company offers a great way to give back to the children of the community. Most nonprofit, private, or public preschool, elementary or middle school, religious group, or other nonprofit that benefits children under the age of 12 can book a fundraiser and have fun at Chuck E. Cheese's with friends and family, knowing they're giving back to a good cause. We decided to revamp and update our fundraising program to make it really more hands-on and easier than ever for schools and nonprofits to turn their fun into funds for their organization's cause, said Randy Forsythe, vice president of Chuck E. Cheese's. In addition to the millions of families we serve in our stores, we look forward to expanding our participation in our local communities. Organizing a fundraiser at Chuck E. Cheese's is easy, profitable and fun. The program does not include selling items to friends and family, and best of all, it does not require extra work. Parents and teachers, as well as authorized staff from the children's organization, can call Chuck E. Cheese at 1-888-CEC-4FUN or go online to host their events. Once completed, fundraising organizers will receive digitally: English and Spanish flyers that they can reproduce and distribute to their organization, graphic designs by Chuck E. Cheese to create custom materials to promote the event, and evite online invitations. Chuck E. himself may even attend schools on the day of the event to help spark excitement. On the night of the fundraising, 15% of the register sales generated by your organisation during the event – including food, beverages, toables and merchandise – will be donated back to the school or organisation. No costs are involved and teachers, administrators or parents do not have to work during the event. Gratitude for their support and presence, teachers are offered a free meal and a trip to ® with a valid ID. In recent months, Chuck E. Cheese's has focused on promoting its school fundraising program in the United States. The brand recently sponsored 10 national PTO meetings and met with more than 6,000 school fundraising coordinators across the country. In addition to fundraising events, Chuck E. Cheese's offers a Token for Grades academic achievement program that rewards good grades with free tokens during Chuck E. Cheese visits. For more information about Chuck E.
